

On August 28, India and China have agreed to de-escalate two months-long territorial standoff in the Himalayas, ahead of the 9th BRICS summit.

MEA Press release on the long Doklam Standoff

- In recent weeks, India and China have maintained diplomatic communication in respect of the incident at Doklam. During these communications, we were able to express our views and convey our concerns and interests.
- On this basis, expeditious disengagement of border personnel at the face-off site at Doklam has been agreed to and is on-going.
